

ASSISTANT CHAPTER DIRECTOR

Mentor students through a servant leadership role, willing to assist with your ministry skills by being a co-laborer in Christ with a Chapter Director! Assistant Chapter Directors have a general understanding of Christian apologetics & theology, coupled with a kind, winsome, and patient demeanor.

This is a volunteer or career opportunity that significantly impacts a young person's future, family, church, community, and vocation. Make an impact!

Campus ministry is incredibly challenging, and extremely rewarding. The university has become the premiere battlefield for the hearts and minds of this generation – the biblical worldview and the enticements of worldly culture could not be contrast further. There is a great opportunity to positively influence the next generation of leaders and to be a mentor and friend to students who are hurting or confused, and desiring answer's to life's big questions. A single campus minister with training in apologetics cannot do it all, alone. Campus ministry requires several active leaders to reach a broad spectrum of students. Ministry at Ratio Christi is truly a team sport!

Some Assistant Chapter Directors help with teaching, others in discipling and building friendships with students, others love to plan events, while others excitedly share gifts in administration.

Are you looking for an opportunity to serve in a vital ministry and make a difference in the lives of students?
